At the outset, the Vice-Chancellor briefly shared with the members the achievements and progress made by the University so far. He pointed out that there is a change in people's perception and attitude in the matters of potentialities and opportunities of distance mode of learning. He mentioned that the IGNOU is regarded as one of the top premier institutions like IITs/IIMs as reported in a leading newspaper based on an objective survey. The emerging character of the University can be felt in terms of the positive response of the student population and of the Government towards distance education system. Today IGNOU is a major player in the education sector with student's enrolment over 5 Lakhs. The continuing rise in enrolment is a pointer to the quality of education and services being provided by IGNOU. The recent launching of Gyan Darshan Educational TV Channel and Gyan Vani (Educational Radio) are the milestones heralding a new era in the field of distance education in India. The current endeavours of the University have been directed to further improve in the area of delivery operations relating to study material and counselling and in particular for strengthening students' support service. With these words, the Vice-Chancellor initiated discussion.

The following items were considered:

ITEM NO. 1 TO CONFIRM THE MINUTES OF THE 22ND MEETING OF THE PLANNING BOARD HELD ON MARCH 26, 1999 AND TO NOTE THE ACTION TAKEN THEREON.

PB 23.1.1 The Board considered and confirmed the Minutes of the 22nd Meeting of the Planning Board held on March 26, 1999 and noted the action taken thereon.
