1.4 The Schools of Studies
With a view to developing interdisciplinary studies, the University operates through Schools of Studies. Each School is headed by a Director who arranges to plan, supervise, develop and organise its academic programmes and courses in co-ordination with the faculty and the different academic, administrative and service wings of the University. The emphasis is on providing a wide choice of courses at different levels. The Schools of Studies in operation currently are as follows:
1. School of Computer & Information Sciences
2. School of Continuing Education
3. School of Education
4. School of Engineering & Technology
5. School of Health Sciences
6. School of Humanities
7. School of Management Studies
8. School of Sciences
9. School of Social Sciences
10. School of Law
11. School of Agriculture
12. School of Journalism and New Media Studies
13. School of Gender and Development Studies
14. School of Tourism, Hospitality and Service Sectoral Management
15. School of Interdisciplinary and Trans-disciplinary Studies
16. School of Social Work
17. School of Vocational Education and Training
18. School of Extension and Development Studies
19. School of Foreign Languages
20. School of Translation Studies and Training
21. School of Performing and Visual Arts

1.5 Academic Programmes

The University offers both short-term and long-term programmes leading to Certificates, Diplomas or Degrees, covering conventional as well as innovative programmes. Most of these programmes have been developed after an initial survey of the demand for such studies. They are launched with a view to fulfilling the learner’s needs for:

- certification
- improvement of skills
- acquisition of professional qualifications
- continuing education and professional development at work place
- self-enrichment
- diversification and upgrading of knowledge, etc.

1.6 Instructional System

The University follows the multi-media approach in imparting instruction to its learners. It comprises:

- Self-instructional printed course material packages
- Assignments for assessment and feedback
- Supporting audio-video programmes
- Face-to-face interaction with academic counsellors at Study Centre
- Practicals at designated institutions
- Project work in some programmes
- Work-related field projects/Functional assignments as per Programme requirements
- Telecast of video programmes on Gyan Darshan
1.7 Course Preparation

Experts drawn from different Universities/Institutions, all over the country as well as in-house faculty specially prepare the learning material. This material is scrutinised by the content experts, supervised by the faculty/unit designers and edited by the language experts at IGNOU before they are finally sent for printing. Similarly, audio and video compact discs (VCDs) are produced in consultation with the course writers, in-house faculty and producers. This material is previewed and reviewed by the faculty as well as outside media experts and edited or modified, wherever necessary, before they are finally despatched to the Study Centres and telecast on Gyan Darshan.

1.8 Credit System

The University follows the 'Credit System' for most of its programmes. Each credit in our system amounts to 30 hours of study comprising all learning activity (i.e., reading and comprehending the print material, listening to the Audio Tapes, watching the Video CDs, attending counselling sessions, teleconference and writing assignments). Thus, a four-credit course involves 120 hours of study. This helps the learner to understand the academic effort one has to put in, in order to successfully complete a course. Completion of an academic programme (Certificate, Diploma or Degree) requires successful clearing of both the assignments and the term-end examination of each course in a programme.

1.9 Student Support Services

In order to provide individualised support to its learners, the University has a number of Study Centres throughout the country. These are co-ordinated by (40 Regional Centres) Regional Centres and 10 Recognised Regional Centres as of date. At the Study Centres, the learners interact with the Academic Counsellors and other students, refer books in the Library, watch/listen to video/audio cassettes and interact with the coordinator on administrative and academic matters.

Learners may seek the help of following University functionaries for sorting out the problems indicated:

i) For admission, change of option, registration, change of centre, identity card, fee receipt and bonafide certificates, write to your Regional Director.

ii) For non-receipt of study material and assignments, write directly to Regional Director of Concerned Regional Centre.

iii) For queries relating to examination, datesheets, results, grade card, re-checking, change of elective write to Student Evaluation Division (SED), Block-12, IGNOU, Maidan Garhi, New Delhi-110068.

vi) For Migration Certificate, requisition may be sent to the Regional Director along with the following documents:
   a. Application (Proforma can be obtained from the Head Office)
   b. Attested Copy of the Marksheet
   c. A fee of Rs. 400/- through a demand draft drawn in favour of IGNOU, payable at New Delhi.

1.10 Programme Delivery

The methodology of instruction in this University is different from that of the conventional Universities. The Open University System is more learner-oriented and the learner is an active participant in the teaching and learning process. Most of the instructions are imparted through distance education methodology rather than face-to-face communication.

The University follows a multimedia approach for instruction. It comprises:

a) Self-Instructional Written Material: The printed study material (written in self-instructional style) for both theory and practical components of the programmes is supplied to the learners in batches or blocks for every course (on an average 1 block per credit). A block in the form of a booklet usually comprises 4 to 6 units.
b) Audio-Visual Material Aids: The learning package contains audio and video CDs that have been produced by the University for the understanding and enhancing of the printed course material given to the learner. A video programme is normally of 25-30 minutes duration. The audio tapes are run and video CDs are screened at the study centres during specific sessions that are duly notified to the learners. The video programmes are telecast on National Network of Doordarshan and Gyan Darshan. Some of the selected stations of All India Radio are also broadcasting the audio programmes. Learners can confirm the dates for the programmes they are interested in from their study centers. The information is also provided through the National Newspapers and IGNOU Newsletters sent to the learners periodically. Audio programmes are broadcast in some selected states through radio stations and Gyan Vani FM Stations. Information about these would be available at the Regional Centres.

c) Counselling Sessions: Normally counselling sessions are held as per schedule drawn by the Study Centre. These are mostly held during the nonworking hours of the host institutions of the study centres.

d) Practicals/Project Work: Some Programmes have practical/project components. Practical are held at designated institutions for which schedule is provided by the Study Centre. Attendance at practicals is compulsory. Keeping in tune with the flexibility as regards choice of time for study one may skip practicals during a year but for doing it in a subsequent year or in order to have a repeat exercise additional fee determined by the University has to be paid. For project work, study centres will provide the necessary guidance but the learner will have to manage his/her own resources.

e) Gyan Darshan: The New Exclusive Educational TV Channel of India: IGNOU in collaboration with Doordarshan now has an exclusive Educational TV Channel called Gyan Darshan. It is available through the Cable TV Network. The Channel telecasts educational programmes 24 hours a day. Apart from the IGNOU Programmes, the channel also telecasts programmes produced by various national educational institutions. You should try to access it through your Cable Operator. The schedule of programmes with time and dates is sent to all study centers a month in advance. Please obtain a copy of the same from your study center. The schedule is also printed in the IGNOU Newsletter six months in advance. Learners receive the Newsletter twice a year.

f) Interactive Radio Counselling: The University has started interactive radio counselling through All India Radio Network all over the country. You can participate in it by tuning into your area Radio Station. Experts from all disciplines are available for this counselling. Learners can put across their questions to the experts through the telephone. The telephone numbers are announced by respective Radio Stations and the toll free number is: 1800 112345. This counselling facility is available, every Sunday between 1600 and 1700 hrs from 189 Radio Stations in the country. The toll free number however has been provided only from select cities.

g) Gyan Vani: The Educational FM Radio of India was launched in November 2001 for education and development and operates through several FM stations in 40 cities and towns across India. EMPC is the nodal agency for implementing this project. As many as 10 FM Radio Stations at Allahabad, Bangalore, Bhopal, Chennai, Coimbatore, Delhi, Kolkata, Lucknow, Mumbai and Vishakapatnam, are already on air. The detailed schedule of broadcasts can be accessed at IGNOU, EMPC - Gyan Darshan website: http://www.ignou.ac.in/gyandarshan%20index.html

1.11 Evaluation System

The system of evaluation in IGNOU is also different from that of conventional universities.

IGNOU has a three tier system of evaluation.

1. Self-assessment exercises within each unit of study.
2. Continuous evaluation mainly through assignments which are either tutor-marked or computer marked, practical assignments and seminar/workshops.
3. The term-end examination/project work.
The evaluation of learners depends upon various instructional activities undertaken by them. A learner has to write assignment responses compulsorily before taking term-end examination from time to time to complete an academic programme. A learner has to send tutor marked assignment responses to the concerned Coordinator of the Study Centre to which s/he is attached. The tutor-marked assignments (TMA) are given 30% weightage and the term-end exams are given 70% weightage.

IGNOU uses the system of "Grading" for evaluating learners' achievement (assignment responses, project work, etc.) on a five-point scale using letter grade A, B, C, D, E. The notional correlates of the letter grades are as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Qualitative Level</th>
<th>Point Grade</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Excellent</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Very Good</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>C</td>
<td>Good</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>D</td>
<td>Satisfactory</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>E</td>
<td>Unsatisfactory</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

In the overall computation, s/he must have a 'C' grade in each course to claim a diploma/degree.

You must make full use of these options. The session beginning in January ends in December and the session beginning in July ends in June of the next year and you may complete it in a minimum duration of one year or extend it to a maximum period of four years. You may take the term end exams in December for January session and June of the next year for the July session. If you wish to complete the programme within one year, you must submit your project proposal by June 30th. You must also complete your project report and submit it for evaluation to Student Evaluation Division at the IGNOU Headquarters before November 30th of that year.

Please remember that you can only take the Term-End Exam (TEE) if you have submitted all your assignments. It is essential to submit your assignments to the Study Centre of the Regional Centre assigned to you. If you do not wish to complete your programme within the minimum period of one year, you may do so in four years but please remember that you must submit fresh assignments for that year. The old assignments will not be accepted in the following year. If you wish to receive fresh assignments, please write to MPDD, for the same.

3.7 Delivery Channels
Print Material
Each COURSE consists of 4 booklets called BLOCKS. For every block there is a number, code and a title. Each block consists of 4 lessons called UNITS. Like blocks, each unit has a number as well as a title. The units in a block and various blocks in a course have been organised in a sequential manner. The sequencing has been done keeping in mind the prior knowledge that you must possess to appreciate a given unit.

Audio Video Materials
To enrich your understanding of creative writing skills further, AUDIO and VIDEO CDs supplement each course. These tapes will be made available to you at your study centre along with other tutorial facilities.

The contents of the various audio and video CDs in each course have been devised to blend with the print material.

3.8 Evaluation
i) Continuous evaluation - 30%

ii) Term-end examination - 70%

Continuous evaluation is related to the assignments that each student has to submit for being eligible to appear for the Term-End Examination. Every student has to complete and submit assignments before s/he can take the Term-End Exam. The evaluation of the students in continuous evaluation and term-end examination will be based on both marks and grading system. The grade system is as follows:
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Letter Grade</th>
<th>Evaluation</th>
<th>Marks</th>
<th>Percentage in Marks</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Excellent</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>80% and more</td>

In order to complete the programme successfully the student must score minimum D grade in all assignments and term-end exams. However, the overall grade in each course should be C or 50%. Please note that in your Project you must score 50% or C grade.

Assignments

The main purpose of assignments is to test your comprehension of the learning materials you receive from us and also to help you get through the courses. Assignments constitute the continuous evaluation. The submission of assignments is compulsory. The marks that you get in your assignments will be counted in your final result. Assignments of a course carry 30% weightage while 70% weightage is given to the term-end examinations. Therefore, you are advised to take your assignments seriously. Each course will have one assignment. The assignment booklet will be sent to you separately. The last date for submission of assignment is 31 March for July Session and for January Session 30th September every year.

Term-End Examinations

Term-end examination is another component of the evaluation system. Term-end examination carries 70% weightage in the final result. The University conducts term-end examinations twice a year i.e.; in June and December.

4.1 Course Description

Credit: Each course is of 4 credits. You require 20 credits to qualify for the Diploma.

Course 1 (Compulsory): General Principles of Writing

The first three blocks of this course will introduce you to the essentials of the art of creative writing. In the fourth and last block you will be familiarised with the requirements of preparing a manuscript for a publisher.

Course 2: Feature Writing

Writing features/articles can be a paying hobby. Any feature writer must be aware of his/her reader’s interests as well as the demands of the publication for which s/he is writing. In this course, you will receive guidance on how to write book reviews, travel articles and interviews. You will also learn to handle sensitive human issues such as writing about women.

Course 3: Short Story

Most of you have, at some time or the other, wanted to write or have written a short story. This course, first discusses the elements of plot, character, atmosphere and narration that constitute the structure of a story. Then you learn the complexities of developing a detective story and how to write for children. These two again are areas that offer a very wide scope to the aspiring writer. Finally, you will learn about contemporary styles, thematic concerns and language usage which will make your story vibrant with meaning.

Course 4: Writing for Media-Radio and Television

It is divided into two parts. Writing for Radio and Writing for Television. This updated course incorporates latest developments in the electronic media and is basically an introduction to the field of script writing for those media.

Course 5: Writing Poetry

There are no rules for writing poetry. This course explains how a poem is created from the reality of a poet’s life and surroundings. The themes, structure, symbolism and language rhythms, as they occur in well-known poems, have been examined to give you an inside view of the poetic experience.

Course 6: Writing Project

This course enables you to put into practice what you have learnt. There are no print materials for it. However, we have provided detailed information about this course elsewhere in the Programme Guide. The experts at the Extended Counselling Programme will provide you more information on the topic.

COURSE 6 - WRITING PROJECT (DETAILS)

Course Code: DCE 6
Course Title: Writing Project

The details for your course work/project are given below;

a) Introduction

Course 6 is a Compulsory course in which the learner will have to prepare a Project which has two components (a) Project Proposal and (b) Project Report. You will be graded on your Project Report. Its purpose is to give you an opportunity to develop your creative talents in a disciplined manner.

The project, requiring a substantial amount of writing, will enable us to know how far your writing is publication worthy. You are expected to write approximately 20,000 words for your project. In the case of a project which consists of only a set of poems, this limitation will not apply.

b) Choice

i) Novella - 20,000 words approximately
ii) 8-10 Features/Articles
iii) 8-10 Short Stories
iv) 12-15 Poems of approximately 14 lines each
v) Writing Scripts for either Radio or TV
vi) Any other project on similar lines with the prior approval of the Faculty of English. Book reviews are allowed if they do not exceed 20% of the total length of the project. This is because the emphasis has to be on creative writing. However, since there is a block on book-reviews, a couple of book reviews may be included in a project which otherwise substantially deals with other forms of creative writing.

c) Receipt of Project Proposals at New Delhi (Addressthe proposal to)

The Director, School of Humanities
IGNOU, Maidan Garhi, New Delhi-110068

(Your proposal should be sent to us directly marking a copy to the/Regional Director as well).

d) Length of Project Proposal: 500 words approximately

e) Counselling for Project Proposal

Your Counsellor will assist you in formulating your project proposal. Please contact your Coordinator for further information.

4.3 Planning Your Project Proposal

I) For your project, you may choose anyone of the following areas:
   i) Novella
   ii) Features/Articles
   iii) Short Stories
   iv) Scripts for Radio & T.V.
   v) Poems
   vi) Any other project on similar lines.

II) Format of Project Proposal

A Project Proposal (500 words) should consist of the following:

i) Title of the Project

ii) Objectives: What you propose to do in your project, and what you hope to achieve at the end (publication of your poems, for example, could be one of the goals)

State approximately how many stories, articles, poems, etc. you plan to write.

Give the title of each story, article or poem.

Make a brief statement (2 to 3 sentences) about the theme of each story, feature/article, poem etc.

iii) Methodology: The method you wish to adopt in order to structure or organise your work: e.g., do you propose to write experimental stories or formula stories? How do you propose to go about your project in general.

iv) Any remarks of a general nature comprising observations and comments.
III) Guidelines for Project Proposal and Project Report

i) Novella

The proposal should give some idea about the following: theme, approach (Formula, Experimental, Stream-of-Consciousness, etc). The novella itself should be 20,000 words approximately.

ii) Features/Articles

8-10 in number. Any single feature should not exceed 2,000 words. Make your features as diverse as possible. The title should specify the topic clearly. For instance, an article titled ‘Environment’ would be quite meaningless as it suggests too wide an area to be adequately covered in a single feature article. Environmental changes in the ‘Doon Valley’ would give the reader a better idea of what to expect.

A precise title will also provide a framework for your subject matter and prevent you from digressing. For instance, in the article ‘Environmental Changes in the ‘Doon Valley’, you might like to talk about the Silent Valley Project in Kerala, but the phrase ‘Doon Valley’ will keep reminding you that the major part of your article should not be about the Silent Valley.

Be sure of your point of view before you start writing, for this, you must also be sure of your target readership – children, women, general public, academics etc. You must also be aware of the policies of the journal, magazine, newspapers, etc., for which you are writing – its political and cultural orientation, for instance.

You must read various magazines and newspaper articles to get the feel and tone of the contemporary usage of the English language.

Avoid archaic words, and cliches, unless you can give them a fresh twist. Carefully observe the rules of grammar and syntax.

To make your features/articles readable and interesting, introduce humour, examples, illustrations, anecdotes, photographs, sketches, etc. Your factual information should be accurate. Remember, however, that the personal creative touch is more important than mere data and statistics. Do not make your project report into a research paper – always bear in mind the fact that your feature will be read by the lay reader rather than the specialist.

iii) Short stories

8-10 in number. You must give a 2-3 line statement of the theme of each story in your project proposal.

Stories can be of different types, each type requiring a slightly different approach. So, first you should decide whether you want to write formula stories, detective stories, experimental stories or children’s stories. You may, of course, have a project which will be a combination of these types of stories. We give you a brief outline of each type below:

Formula Stories

A formula story usually is written or revolves around a well-defined plot based on an incident, culminates in a climax and resolves itself tragically or happily for the main characters. These characters are recognisable types, who often face dilemmas that arise out of stock social problems.

Detective Stories

Remember that your main task is to build up a sense of mystery and keep the suspense of the story at a steady pitch till the end. For this, unnecessary descriptions and details should be kept out as they distract the reader from the focus of the story. The detective’s character should be built up carefully. Secondary characters should be kept to a minimum to make the ending plausible. Relevant clues to the mystery should be presented throughout the story.

Experimental Stories

In such stories events are usually viewed through the subjective vision of the main characters. Memories intervene; life is seen as a ceaseless flow. Hence, such a story does not give importance to a plot, a proper beginning or a definite end. Rather, it highlights significant moments in the life of the protagonists, and leaves the story open-ended. The conclusion is not important. The language may be highly informal or even lyrical.

Writing for Children

Writing stories for children can be highly demanding, both in terms of content and design. Observe children. Try to keep close to the reality of their lives. Children appreciate a sense of humour. The vocabulary and sentence structure are also important for rapid and easy reading. Illustrations enliven any piece of writing for children.

iv) Scripts for Radio and/or TV

You can attempt scripts for either Radio or TV or both. (Writing for Radio and Writing for Television see item 3.8 of Unit 3, Block 1 for radio format, and Unit 1, Block 3 for TV format). A radio script can include a radio play, an illustrative talk with sound effects. You could attempt a serial adaptation of a novel or a radio profile (feature, magazine or even a documentary on a personality). You may include an interview – a spot interview, a field interview or a studio interview. You could identify a topic and present it in the form of a discussion with several participants and a moderator.

In case you wish to produce a script for a play, keep in mind the fact that appropriate sound effects will be needed to replace the visual elements and you would have to suggest them in your script.

While formulating your proposal,

- choose your area of interest with care - radio and/or TV
- then decide on your intention - education, information, entertainment, choose your topic/ programme
- narrow it down to specifics - an adaptation, a series, a number of talks, a quiz programme
- decide on the word/time length - say 22 minutes and then formulate your proposal.

v) Poems

12-15 poems of approximately 14 lines each. You should give the central theme and image or symbol of each poem in your project proposal. Longer poems are not acceptable.

Go through the four blocks of your course materials first. They have been structured to identify and discuss the components of a poem.

Before you start writing, be sure of the form of your poem – will it be a lyric, a sonnet, or free verse? the meaning of a poem also conveys itself through its form.

Do you want your poem to tell a story, describe a scene, an emotion or an idea?

What is the overall mood of your poem? Build it up by the use of appropriate similes and metaphors and other kinds of imagery.
vi) Any other project
- Any other project on similar lines is permissible so long as it conforms to the format and is duly approved by the Faculty of English.
- Book Reviews are permitted; so long as they do not exceed 20% of the total length of the project;
- Combinations, judiciously balanced, are permitted. In case you wish to combine genres in your project report, it should include a fair representation of each kind. For example, a report could comprise 5 features and 5 short stories;
- Translation of poems, short stories etc. (into English) as a project, or part of it, will NOT be accepted.
- Travelogues, Biographies and Book-Reviews or Radio Interview alone cannot form an entire project.

IV) SAMPLE PROPOSAL -This is what your proposal should look like:

Title of the Project: THE FRAGMENTS

Objectives
The Project will consist of 5 short stories and 5 feature/articles I hope that ultimately I will be able to get some of my articles and stories published.

Methodology
Some of my stories will be formula stories others will be left open-ended. Some of my stories will employ the stream-of-consciousness technique. The atmosphere, setting and tone will suit the theme in each case. The day-to-day experience of living raises a number of questions. Problems encountered, topics deeply pondered, unfamiliar scenarios these will be presented in the form of feature articles, the aim being to evolve a well-rounded, unbiased picture of the situation. For this, I will conduct some on-the-spot interviews, read relevant material on the topic under discussion and then write these feature articles, presenting my personal point of view.

Stories
1) Quirk of Circumstances: Popular, erudite professor, but a tyrant at home, till an incident changes his life.
2) The Mask: A pretty and pleasant girl seems to behave oddly, all of a sudden. Her deceptive appearances are seen through in the course of events.
3) The Dark Horizon: Son of socialite parents, neglected, loner, stern upbringing makes him lean towards the pleasant hallucinations of heroin and opium ...
4) The Reflections: A number of persons are seen walking down a country road, they are being watched by someone. His reflections on the persons who move along the road form the main ingredient of the story.
5) The Memories: Anup recalls his friendship with Joseph on hearing the shocking news of the latter's suicide. A trail of memories follow.

Features
1) Capitation Fee: Can we entrust our lives and industries to those doctors and engineers who have "bought" their education through capitation fees?
2) Poor Standard of Indian Sports: Why is the standard of Indian sports so low? Why do other developing countries perform so much better than us? Is something wrong with our sports policies?
3) Ecological Degradation: In recent years, a great deal of damage has been caused to the natural environment. This needs to be stopped otherwise the consequences will be disastrous for the future generations.
4) Growing Old: The effect of the split in the joint family brings tremendous mental suffering to old persons who even though economically independent, require love and care.
5) Singapore Revisited: A glimpse into the scenic spots of the proverbial “Shopper’s Paradise”, and some of the many festivals that make up its cultural climate.

VI) MODALITIES FOR SUBMISSION OF PROJECT PROPOSAL AND PROJECT REPORT

In any project undertaken for DCE-6, it is necessary to observe the following steps:

i) Draft your Project Proposal as per the guidelines given above.

ii) Submit your Project Proposal to Director, School of Humanities, send a copy, simultaneously to your Regional Director for information and records.

iv) Your Proposal will be returned to you within ten weeks of its receipt with one of the following remarks:

‘Approved’

Approved conditionally subject to observation of certain guidelines and modifications.

Re-do and re-submit to the Director (School of Humanities).

v) All approved proposals must be attached with the completed project to enable the evaluator to check whether there is conformity with the proposed outline, suggested modifications, etc. Some projects have arrived in parts — 4 stories in one despatch and 4 features some weeks later. Please note that the entire report must be in one cover, and bound if possible, or at least tagged. It is of no use if you send your reports in parts—in fact, there is every chance of it getting lost.

vi) Your report must be accompanied by a certificate that the work is original, has not been submitted elsewhere and embodies the writing done as part of Course 6. (Self certified)
