Introduction

In the ODL system, programmes are offered through both print and non-print media. There is an important role played by audio/video programme which are specially designed to reduce the distance between the learner and teacher. IGNOU has followed the inclusion of electronic media in the development of its programmes and has a vast number of audiovisual resources. The development of A/V resources by faculty requires specialized training as these have a mass appeal and are available to not just learners but also the public at large. Therefore, there was a felt need for ensuring that there is high quality in the development of media resources and hence this STP was organised by STRIDE in collaboration with Electronic Media Production Centre (EMPC)..

Learning Outcomes

The learning outcomes of this STP were as follows:

- To introduce the role of multimedia in ODL, specially in the context of NEP 2020.
- To design multimedia and understand its pedagogy.
- To develop script writing skills for audio and video presentations, and develop on camera presentation skills.
- To explain the technical aspects of camera and other devices.
- To practice teaching-learning through audio and video.

Target Group

The STP included new faculty as participants from different Schools for this intensive 'hands on' STP. Preference was given to those participants who had recently joined IGNOU and attended the Induction Programme at STRIDE.

Proceedings

The Six Days STP on 'NEP-2020: Design and Development of Audio/ Video Programmes' (Batch-III) was inaugurated by Dr Srikant Mohapatra, Pro Vice Chancellor, IGNOU on 9th November, 2022. Dr Mohapatra said that in the National Education Policy there was a lot of emphasis on pedagogy and every teacher had to be able to teach both in face to face, online modes. Dr Mohapatra said that this exposure to multimedia would help the newly recruited faculty to better present their programmes in different formats as it would equip them with skills for the a more complete teacher. Professor Santosh Panda, Director, STRIDE spoke about the relevance of such programmes and said that in the present day social identity including online identity was very important and emphasized that the understanding pedagogy of the discipline as well as pedagogy of technology was now necessary to be a complete teacher. Earlier Dr K D Prasad, Director (I/c), EMPC while making the opening remarks that this programme would prepare teachers for making presentations on the national channels and observing the ethics of presentation at national and international levels. He thanked STRIDE for organizing this collaborative programme. Professor Madhu Parhar, STRIDE said that in all programmes, print had to be supported by videos for effective learning. Dr Sunil Das, former Additional Director, EMPC said that integration of Audio/Video was necessary so that the new generation of learners could be easily taught through digital medium. Prof Anita Priyadarshini, coordinator of the STP welcomed Dr Srikant Mohapatra, Hon'ble, PVC and other dignitaries. She informed that this programme was being conducted for newly recruited faculty of IGNOU. Dr Ram Chandra, Assistant Professor, STRIDE proposed the vote of thanks for this programme.

During the six days, there was a mix of theory and practical session. The activities included the following :

- Script writing activity
- Studio activity (audio & video)
- Discussions and group reflection
- Script presentation activity
- Studio presentation activity

The strategy was both Formative and Summative evaluation. Participant training needs assessment along with participant assignment, mid-programme assessment, as well as final assessment was conducted. Each participant was awarded a grade as per UGC grading system, which was mentioned in the Certificate.
