Prof. Rao briefed the Members of the Board about the achievements made by School of law during the past 3 years. The School of Law (SOL) was established in 2005 with an objective of imparting legal education through Open and Distance Learning system. School of Law is offering several programmes both in distance education and online mode ranging from Para-legal Practice, Human Rights, Consumer Protection, Cyber Law, Patent Practice, Legal Process Outsourcing and Intellectual Property Rights. A two year Masters Programme in Intellectual Property Law exclusively through online mode was launched from January, 2010 in association with Queensland University of Technology (QUT), Australia.

From July, 2010 onwards, the following 5 programmes will be launched i.e. (i) Certificate in Anti Human Trafficking, (ii) Diploma in Environmental law, (iii) Certificate in International Humanitarian Law, (iv) Awareness Programme on Right to Information and (v) Certificate in Cooperation, Cooperative law and Business Laws.

Prof. Rao asked the new Director of School of Law to take over the Chairmanship of School Board.

At the outset, the new Chairman Prof. K. Elumalai welcomed all the Members of the School Board of School of Law. The Chairman placed on record the contributions made by the earlier internal Members of the School Board viz. Prof. Pandav Nayak, SOSS, Prof. Gracious Thomas, Director, School of Social Work, Prof. Santosh Panda, STRIDE, Prof. Salil Mishra, SOSS and welcomed the new internal members.

Prof. Pandav Nayak commended the work done by Prof. Rao in the last 3 years and said SOL may come out with vision document for the next 3 years. The chairman expressed his desire to come out with a vision and roadmap for the next 3 years and place the same before the next School Board. The chairman expressed his desire to move further with targets fixed for every six months and sought the support and cooperation of all concerned.

The items on the agenda were taken up for discussion and the following decisions were taken:

- Item No 9.1: Confirmation of minutes of the Eighth School Board Meeting and to note the action taken thereon.
- SB 9.1.1 The Board was informed that the Eighth meeting of the School Board of School of Law was circulated among the members on 27 January, 2010. It was brought to the notice of the Members about the comments received from Prof. K. Elumalai with regard to Item No. 8.11 to 8.13 and circulation of the same to all Members. As further comments were not received, the minutes may be approved.

- Item No 9.2 Reporting about the creation of new discipline of Criminal Justice in School of Law by Academic Council
- SB 9.2.1 Prof. Rao informed that the Fourth School Board of School of Law held on 14th December, 2007 emphasized the need for creating new discipline in criminal Justice.

Prof. Rao further informed that the discipline for Criminal justice will undertake the Teaching, Research, training and advocacy realizing the importance values, justice and equity. School of Law will be launching several new programmes in the area of criminal justice in the coming years.

SB 9.2.2 Prof. Madhava Menon emphasized that Criminal justice is not a theoretical discipline but an applied discipline. One of the problems that all the states are facing today is a State of helpless situation because of neglect of proper administration of criminal justice. Criminal justice has a much larger task to think about knowledge, fighting crimes, policies and action programmes.

Prof. Madhav Menon has further observed/suggested that the following preliminary work/activities may be undertaken so as to lay down a clear cut roadmap for the proposed discipline.

- (i) Preparation of a vision document for the proposed discipline of Criminal Justice by clearly indicating the activities to be undertaken on priority basis as the scope and ambit of the discipline, prime facie, appears to be very wide and vast.
- (ii) The vision document may also spell out as how to help the State-Governments to get out of the present mess.
- (iii) Identification of institutions i.e. BPR&D, Institute of Forensic Sciences etc. for having tie-up/collaborative arrangements.

Prof. Madhava Menon suggested that the IGNOU may take up with Home Minister for the above programmes in online and distance education mode.

Justice Bhaskar Rao stressed on the need to have the components of field study in our programmes and public issues, the duty of the police constables and about IPC and CRPC that policemen and the common citizen should be aware of.
