S.No.	Name of Program:	Master of Arts (Psychology) (MAPC)
a.	Programmes mission & objectives:	Aim of the Programme is to give the learners a sound base in Psychology and its application in diverse settings.
b.	Relevance of program with HEI's Mission & Goals:	Highly relevant in respect of mission and goals of the University to provide opportunities of higher education to larger segments of the society particularly to the disadvantaged sections to pursue a post graduate level programme in the area of Psychology.
c.	Nature of prospective target group of learners :	Graduates in any Subject
d.	Appropriateness of program to be conducted in open & distance learning mode to acquire specific skills & competence :	Highly appropriate programme for ODL mode as it provides a unique opportunity for pursuing higher education in the discipline of Psychology, to persons living in geographically remote areas of the country and also to those who are desirous to pursue a post graduate degree in this particular area. Besides theory components, practical components of the programme are addressed through lab based practicum, project work and internship which equips the learners with necessary skills and competencies in the subject area.
e.	Instructional Design :	The University has adopted a multiple-media approach for imparting instruction to its learners for its various programmes of study. The University follows the Systems approach to instructional design. The programme was designed after undertaking need analysis; identifying and defining the target group; selection of appropriate media; course design and development; pilot testing and launch of the programme; and periodic revision. The self instructional format is used for developing Self Learning Material (SLM) in print and multiple media. Print is the predominant mode of instruction supplemented with audio and video programmes; face to face counselling sessions; interactive radio counselling (IRC) (Gyan Vani); educational TV broadcasts (Gyan Darshan) and web based counselling (Gyan Dhara). Practical components of the programme are addressed through lab based practicum, project work and internship , which are compulsory components.
f.	Procedure for admissions, curriculum	Admissions: Admission is mainly done online. To transaction and evaluation:	fulfill the mandate of inclusiveness there is a provision for submission of application offline as well. Curriculum Transaction: Curriculum is transacted mainly through printed Self Learning Materials (SLMs), Face to face counselling sessions (theory/practical), audio and video programmes, interactive radio counselling (IRC) (Gyan Vani), educational TV broadcasts (Gyan Darshan) and web based counselling (Gyan Dhara). Besides theory components, practical components of the programme are addressed through lab based practicum, and project work and internship. Evaluation: The University uses formative/continuous and summative/ term end evaluation for assessing the progress of its learners and evaluation of their performance. Formative/ Continuous evaluation is conducted at two levels i.e. through self check exercises in-built into the SLMs; formative assessment through tutor marked assignment and practicum, project work and internship. Summative / term end evaluation is through Term End Examinations for theory and practical courses and Viva voce.

g.	Requirement of the laboratory support and library recourses:	Lab support: 240 hours in the First year and 180 hours of personal contact program in the Second year is mandatory for Practical component. Prior to activation of a LSC for MAPC, a team of IGNOU staff visit the prospective LSC to confirm that the Psychology lab at the Center meets all requirements of MAPC. Library resources: Library facility is available at all Learner Support Centres; Regional Centres and Headquarters of the University.
h.	Cost estimate of the program and the provisions:	Programme development is an ongoing process and the programme is already on offer. However, before development of the programme, cost analysis was done at the level of the School in coordination with Planning and Development Division (there is a dedicated full- fledged Planning and Development Division for the policy planning of the University). The University has dedicated budgetary provisions for programme development at the level of School, Material Production and Distribution (there is a dedicated full- fledged Material Production and Distribution Division for material production and distribution) and Electronic Media Production Centre (there is a dedicated full- fledged Electronic Media Production Centre for electronic media production). Digital media production (there is a

		dedicated full- fledged Inter University Consortium for production of MOOCs and digital media)and delivery of the program through its dedicated Divisions namely Regional Services Division which oversees the operations of all Regional Centres and LSCs; E support Unit, Student Registration Division, Student Evaluation Division and Student Service Centre at the HQs.
i.	Quality assurance mechanism and expected program outcomes:	Quality Assurance mechanism: University has: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Standard norms and procedures for course design and development;</li> <li>• Standard norms and procedures for establishment of LSCs,</li> <li>• Standard norms for appointment of academic counsellors and evaluators;</li> <li>• Involving external experts in maintaining quality of curriculum design and development , including student evaluation;</li> <li>• All activities of LSCs and examination centers are monitored by University.</li> <li>• 2% assignments are being monitored by faculty of School to ensure the quality of continuous evaluation</li> </ul> The University has standardized its courseware based on the credit system. To further standardize its courses it has developed its own house style. There is a mechanism in place for continuous quality assessment for design, development and delivery of its academic programmes. The quality is assured at different phases by statutory bodies of the University namely: School Board of Studies, Academic Programme Committee, Planning Board and Academic Council. Programme evaluation is the norm before undertaking revision of the programme. The above mechanism has been followed for this programme also. Expected Programme Outcomes: A well-informed post-graduate ready to take up research, teaching in the area of Psychology. This programme helps the learners to learn and acquire the basic skills and competencies in the subject area and churn out trained psychologists for academic and research institutes, NGO's, government organizations, health sectors, etc.
