

PG Diploma in Development Studies (PGDDVS)

Programme Objectives

- To impart knowledge on various aspects of development studies.
- To train qualified human resources in the professional area of development studies.
- To develop professional skills in formulation, implementation, monitoring and evaluation of development projects and programmes.

1st Year

MDV 101: Introduction to Development and Development Theories

To provide knowledge about the concept, paradigm of development and various theories of development.

MDV 102: Dynamics Development

To make the student acquire knowledge about various dynamics of development market, state and other actors.

MDV103: Issues and Challenges of Development

To give a comprehensive understanding about various basics sector at social and emerging issues in development.

MDV 106: Research Methods in Development Studies

The give knowledge and practical understanding about various aspects of research such as fundamentals of social development science research, development research, measurement and sampling, data collection and analysis.

MDV 109: Development in India- An Overview

To provide knowledge about development and planning initiative taken by the government; rural and urban development and role of various sectors in development.

MDV 004: Gender & Development

To provide knowledge about various issues and challenge of gender related Development.

Assessment Strategy

Assignments and term-end examination