

PGDHMM

Update knowledge and competency in managing a hospital set up

PGDHMM-01 Introduction To Management - I acquire theoretical knowledge and develop practical skills to apply scientific approach to management of people, materials, finance, communication and for organising work and managing resources.

Evaluation TMA, internal assessment and
Term End Exam

PGDHMM-02 Introduction To Management - II

learn modern management techniques like inventory control, economic order quantity (EOQ), operational research, organisational development, management information system etc.

Evaluation
TMA, internal
assessment and
Term End Exam

PGDHMM-03 Organisation and Management of Hospitals plan in advance how to face the problems of hospital management, learn methods of problem solving and decision making.

Evaluation
TMA, internal
assessment and
Term End Exam

PGDHMM-04 Clinical, Diagnostic & Therapeutic Services

assess the clinical and non-clinical needs of patient care, understanding the administrative and technical requirements of physicians and paramedical personnel.

learn planning and designing needs of physical facilities of hospitals.

Evaluation
TMA, internal
assessment and
Term End Exam

PGDHMM-05 Support & Utility Services And Risk Management

apply the principles and functions of general management to various services to maximise efficiency.

learn the principles and practices of health management and its interactive roles with the medical care in hospitals.

Evaluation
TMA, internal
assessment and
Term End Exam

PGDHMM-06 Health System Management use the epidemiological techniques to study the prevalence of diseases and its pattern in the community to plan health care services.

learn to utilise biostatistics in planning, decision making professional services review and in medico-administrative research.

Evaluation
TMA, internal
assessment and Term End Exam