Three Days Online Training on
'NEP 2020: Changing Role of Teachers in Distance and Online Learning' for Faculty of IGNOU, SOUs, DEIs

24-26 March, 2022

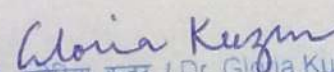

Background

IGNOU stands for providing access, equity, quality and affordable education to the deprived and disadvantaged learners since its establishment in 1985. It has an autonomous status and has been able to reach the unreached and diverse learners through its network of 67 Regional Centres (RCs) and above 2000 Study Centres. The Staff Training and Research Institute of Distance Education (STRIDE) (initially set up as DDE in 1986) has conducted a total of 612 training programmes including Orientation, Refresher, FDPs and Administrative Staff Trainings and trained 13056 faculty and staff in India (IGNOU, SOUs, DEIs, conventional universities, DoPT etc.) and abroad (22 countries) since 1987 till 2021.

With the changing technological advancement and pedagogical methods, role and requirement of faculty in Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) is changing. Also, the focus and thrust areas of National education Policy (NEP-2020) demands a change with regard to the approach of teaching and learning in HEIs in order to build India as a knowledge society and increase the GER to 50 percent by 2035. Since teachers forms the centre of the learning process, emphasis of NEP- 2020 has been on issues related to innovative curriculum design, new pedagogical approaches, continuous assessment (online/offline), provide a learner-centric environment and teachers to be mentor and guide of the learners. NEP-2020 also emphasises on continuous professional development of faculty and their engagement in research/teaching and inter-multidisciplinary academic collaborations. In this backdrop, it becomes significant to provide training to the faculty for proper implementation of NEP-2020 for bringing about reform in India's education system in the 21st century. Therefore, above mentioned training programme is proposed for the faculty of IGNOU, SOUs and DEIs for building capacities of DOL teachers, so that they can play multifaceted role as teachers as envisaged in NEP-2020.
