

Induction cum Orientation Programme for Newly Recruited Faculty of IGNOU

(20th - 24th September, 2021)

Coordinators: Dr. Tata Ramakrishna, Dr. Ali Asgar & Prof. C.R.K Murthy

Background

Distance Education succeeded Correspondence Education long time back because of its demands and expectations of the people across the globe. It caters education to a large gamut of learners who are deprived to receive education due to some or other reasons. A few reasons may include geographical barriers, financial factors, cultural issues, family responsibility, etc. Indira Gandhi National Open University (IGNOU) as a mega open university and identified as the central university of India has one of the important objective out of many is to provide education to all sections and categories of people in their demands irrespective of sex, religion, and age. It offers more than 200 courses across the globe having approximate 55 Regional Centres (RCs) and more than 2000 Study Centres (SCs) and with the headquarter at Maidan garhi, New Delhi. It offers the vocational courses, professional courses, UGC approved courses for the various target groups. It provides its learners various support services including self learning print materials (SLMs) and technological supports Such as Interactive Radio Counseling Teleconferencing etc. IGNOU as an apex body of Open University systems in India sets examples for other state open universities CCIs, distance education directorates in various universities. It prepares its SLMs in robust manner. IGNOU recognizes as a premier and mega Open University of the world because of its quality assurance study materials and technological supports to its students.

IGNOU is not limited with the above functions. It has other dominant and striking functions for the upliftment of education in the country. To understand the complexity and various functions of IGNOU newly joined teachers/academics need to know various functions of Divisions and Schools. They need to acquaint with the system for their understanding and smooth running of their respective academic programmes. They need to familiar with IGNOU activities and their roles and responsibilities for achieving the IGNOU objectives. To make familiar with all these issues STRIDE is organizing the induction cum orientation programme for them specifically to achieve the following objectives.

Objectives

The objectives of the proposed induction programme are to:

- Orient and Induct to the open distance learning and IGNOU system and introduce the role and responsibilities of a teacher in ODL;
- Explain the origin and growth of distance education across the globe with special reference to changing scenario;
- Design, Development and revision of courses/programmes at IGNOU;
- Discuss the various functions of IGNOU and elaborate the interrelation and collaboration between various Divisions and Schools of IGNOU;
- Explain role of Self-Learning Print Materials and Online Courseware;
- Illustrate various support services for the distance learners and Technological developments of IGNOU vis-à-vis the functions of teacher at the open universities;
- Identify the major challenges and develop the techniques to overcome those challenges in IGNOU context; and
- Explain the roles and functions of the faculty as distance teachers of IGNOU.

Participants

Around 40 newly joined teachers in various departments of IGNOU headquarters will be the participants in this programme.

Mode of the Programme

By keeping the COVID-19 pandemic situation in view, with following all precautionary measures and social distancing this Programme is proposed to be conducted through face to face mode. Hence, it is desirable to have orientation in two batches. This is the first batch for the new faculty who have already joined by now.

Duration

The duration of this faculty development programme will be five (05) days, i.e. 20-24 September, 2021

Methodology

Lecture presentations followed by interactions. There shall be visit to some of the Divisions of IGNOU. Focus will be given on group discussions and sharing individual experiences of working in ODL. Attention will be paid to individual participants in practical and hands-on experience.

Resource Persons

Faculty from STRIDE and other Schools of Studies, Divisions/Units and some external experts on ODL would act as Resource Persons in this five days Induction programme.

Resource Materials

Soft copies of relevant Handbooks and other material developed by STRIDE and others (e-copies) shall be used as the base material for the programme.

Expected Outcomes

At the end of this induction cum orientation programme each participant is expected to:

- Develop comprehensive understanding about the ODL and Online system of education provided by IGNOU.
- Identify various functions of IGNOU and understand the interrelation and collaboration between various Divisions and Schools of IGNOU.
- Discuss various components of teaching learning processes in ODL and Online system.
- Discharge his/her role as a distance teacher towards the learners' needs with sensitivity involved therein.
